Organised by:

Research and Seminar Committee & IQAC, Presidency College

In collaboration with

Research & Development Cell & IQAC, Oasis College, Kangpokpi

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

This one-day Faculty Development Programme is designed to enhance faculty and administrative preparedness for NAAC accreditation. The seminar focuses on strategic planning for NAAC accreditation, emphasizing the critical roles of both faculty and administrators in ensuring quality and compliance. It will provide a comprehensive understanding of the revised NAAC Accreditation Framework, including key criteria, recent updates, and common challenges faced during the accreditation process. Additionally, the seminar will include a session on academic writing, focusing on journal article writing and publication strategies. Participants will gain valuable insights into quality assurance, academic contributions, and institutional development, making this seminar a vital platform for knowledge enhancement and professional growth in the higher education.
